The college secretary, Mr. S. Jaganmohan Reddy, paid floral tributes to the photographs of Indian freedom fighters in the college premises. Subsequently, he hoisted the national flag. He urged everyone to carry forward the ideals of independent India. He suggested that everyone should follow the principle of self-belief and courage to achieve success in life. The secretary suggested that to meet global challenges, sustainable development should be followed. Principal Dr. Akula Giridhar, in his speech, suggested that students should take the lead and progress on the path of development while breathing the air of freedom in the country. He thanked the students for their special performances, including parades and drills. The college students enthralled the audience with their parades, songs, patriotic songs, and patriotic dances. The students, faculty, and staff were greatly inspired by the Republic Day celebrations organized in this way. The 76th Republic Day celebrations were enjoyed very happily at Sphoorthy Engineering College. This is the day our constitution was adopted. It is the day that embodies the aspirations and ideals of a free, democratic, and sovereign nation. It is a living example of the principles of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity. It is the day that has shaped the society where every citizen has equal rights and opportunities regardless of caste, religion, or gender. On this Republic Day, let us express our gratitude to our soldiers who guard our borders, to the farmers who feed us, and to our scientists. Let us contribute to the building of society. Happy Republic Day to everyone. Jai Hind.

Dasoju Sravan Criticizes CM Revanth Reddy Over Locking of Ambedkar Statue Premises

Hyderabad
WUT | Jan . 27

Dr. Dasoju Sravan, a prominent leader of the BRSV, strongly criticized Telangana Chief Minister Revanth Reddy for locking the premises surrounding the 125-foot Dr. B.R. Ambedkar statue located next to the Telangana State Secretariat in Hyderabad. Dr. Sravan claimed that the act was not just an attack on a statue, but an affront to the emotions of the entire Telangana populace. Ambedkar's Spirit Unstoppable. Dr. Sravan expressed outrage, stating that as long as the sun and moon exist, no one can suppress the spirit of

Dr. Ambedkar. He called it "cruel" for CM Revanth Reddy to lock the statue's premises, describing the action as a manifestation of an "irrational" mentality. He demanded the immediate cessation of such actions, which he deemed as a suppression of democracy. Direct Challenge to CM Revanth Reddy. Dr. Sravan posed a direct challenge to Revanth Reddy, questioning his motives for locking the statue premises. He asked, "If you locked the Ambedkar statue premises because it was installed by former CM KCR, how can you continue to occupy the Telangana Secretariat, which was also built by KCR?" Warning Against Caste Politics. Dr. Sravan warned CM Revanth Reddy to cease his actions that undermine public sentiments and promote caste-based politics. He emphasized the need for the Chief Minister to reconsider his stance, stating that it was disrespectful to belittle Dr. Ambedkar's legacy. Democracy at Risk. The BRSV leader including brsv president Gellu Srinivas yada further criticized CM Revanth Reddy for governing with a "factional mentality" that tramples on constitutional values. "This statue is not of KCR's ancestors but of Dr.

Bhimrao Ambedkar, a national hero.
